FALL STUDENT RETREAT FAQ's

- When is the retreat? October 11-13, 2018
- Where will it be held? Legacy Retreat Center, Homer GA
- How do I register? Register online at ngacog.org.
- Who is the speaker and who is the band? Kaylee and Erica Tuttle are singer/songwriters who have established themselves as true ministers of music with a declarative message for their generation. With the combination of a deep passion for God, original song lyrics, and genuine artistry, they possess a compelling communication gift that allows them to reach the world through music. They have frequently performed at Winterfest throughout the country.
- Special Speaker: Our speaker is Noah Herrin, the young adult pastor at the North Cleveland Church of God, the founder of The Gathering movement and frequent speaker at Youth America. Noah and his wife, Maddy, have a YouTube channel targeting the young adult and student audience. Noah is no stranger to North Georgia. His parents, Torrey & Polly, pastor The Bridge Community Church in Buford.
- How much does it cost? $85 students, $45 adult chaperones, free for the designated youth pastor/spouse
- When is the money due? $20 per person (deposit) due September 26th
- Does a Middle School youth pastor/spouse pay? If a church has a paid Middle School youth pastor, he/she and spouse may attend free.
- Can we add or delete students/chaperones after we have submitted our deposit? Yes, you may adjust your numbers after September 26th. However, if your numbers change substantially, please email your final count by noon on Thursday, October 10th (so we may adequately prepare). Please email changes to tracy@ngacog.org.

- What is covered in the cost? 2 night's lodging, meals, retreat shirt and take away's.
- Can we arrive late on Friday if there is a conflict with our schedule? Yes, we always have a few groups who arrive late due to football, band, etc.
- If we arrive late, is the price reduced? We do not breakdown the cost per day or per meal. If someone arrives late, the cost remains the same.
- Will I need spending money? The canteen will be open during the retreat. Canteen items range between $1.00 and $2.00.
- What do I need to bring to the Fall Student Retreat? See the enclosed flyer with further information.
- How many are expected to attend the retreat? Generally, 500-600 students and chaperones from churches across North Georgia attend the Fall Student Retreat.
- Where will we stay? The Legacy can accommodate approximately 650 people. Groups will be assigned on a first-come, first-served basis.
